

GRANT WRITING 101 WORKSHOP

Reichert and Associates is hosting a two-day grant writing workshop to benefit individuals in government and non-government organizations, development agencies and private companies as well as grant managers, independent contractors and students. Join us to learn how to transform an idea into action with our Grant Writing 101 workshop.

In this workshop, you will:

- Prepare yourself and your workplace for undertaking grant writing
- Learn how to create the foundational pieces of any grant
- Learn tips and tools to make your writing exceptional
- Understand what funders look for and how they assess proposals
- Write a full proposal and compete for first place prizes

Join Taryn Danford as she leads participants through the process of grant writing in this two-day, interactive workshop. Taryn has more than a decade of experience working with non-profit and private sector agencies in senior management and revenue development roles. As a grant writing strategist, she has successfully raised millions of dollars for non-profit organizations both across Canada and internationally.

$250.00 per person includes

Workshop materials
Take-home workbook
Lunch and refreshment
1 hour free phone support
from Reichert & Associates

Registration closes April 15, 2016

Early bird Rates

$200.00/person before March 22, 2016
Be entered into a draw to win a free seat in our upcoming evaluation workshop on May 20, 2016 in Vancouver
- a $350.00 value!

Location

Room C.225 | UBC Robson Square
800 Robson Street | Vancouver, BC
V6Z 3B7

Date and Time

April 21-22, 2016 8:30am - 4:30pm

Contact

Taryn Danford 1.604.428.2478
taryn@reichertandassociates.ca

April 21-22, 2016
8:30am-4:30pm

Limited space is available.
Click here to register online

REICHERT & ASSOCIATES
PROGRAM EVALUATION & RESEARCH