

GRANT WRITING 101 WORKSHOP

Reichert and Associates is hosting a two-day grant writing workshop to benefit individuals in government and non-government organizations, development agencies and private companies as well as grant managers, independent contractors and students. Join us to learn how to transform ideas into action with our Grant Writing 101 workshop.

In this workshop, you will:

- ✓ Prepare yourself and your workplace to undertake grant writing
- ✓ Learn how to create the foundational pieces of grant applications
- ✓ Learn tips and tools to make your writing exceptional
- ✓ Understand what funders look for and how they assess proposals
- ✓ Write a full proposal and gain valuable insight on final touches

Join Taryn Danford as she leads participants through the process of grant writing in this two-day, interactive workshop. Taryn has more than a decade of experience working with non-profit and private sector agencies in senior management and revenue development roles. As a grant writing strategist, she has successfully raised millions of dollars for non-profit organizations both across Canada and internationally.

$299.00 Per Person Includes

Workshop materials
Take-home workbook
Light lunch and refreshments

Registration closes September 15, 2016

Early Bird Rates

$250.00/person until September 6, 2016.

Location

Room C.225 | UBC Robson Square
800 Robson Street | Vancouver, BC
V6Z 3B7

Date and Time

September 19-20, 2016
8:30am - 4:30pm

Contact

Taryn Danford 1.604.428.2478
taryn@reichertandassociates.ca

September 19-20, 2016
8:30am-4:30pm

Limited space is available.
Click here to register!

REICHERT & ASSOCIATES
PROGRAM EVALUATION & RESEARCH